McClellan Wants Gun Control Bill

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., one of the principal forces behind the gun control bill pending in Congress, is scheduled to address the annual convention of the Arkansas Law Enforcement Officers Association here tonight.
Carl Miller, retired director of the Arkansas State Police, who registered for the convention Wednesday, said he felt the proposed crime bill "would correct a lot of difficulty law enforcement officers have had."
"We give Sen. John L. McClellan almost entire credit for the bill because he has fought for it from the start in both houses," Miller said.
Several of those attending the convention Wednesday said they doubted, however, that "any gun law on earth" could have prevented the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.
The New York senator was shot critically early Wednesday at Los Angeles.
Police Chief C. G. Thompson of Prescott, president of the association, issued a statement on behalf of the organization which said the attempt on Kennedy's life is "completely contrary to the American way of life."
"When he served as U. S. attorney general Kennedy was considered a strong friend of the American law enforcement officer," the statement said.

No Request for Racing Date-Larey

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Revenue Commissioner B. Bryn Larey said Wednesday he has not received a request from Southland Racing Corp. for a 102-day racing season to begin June 21.
W. J. Rasico, new president and acting track manager, said once Bell of Parkin and others Tuesday the request would be submitted to the state Racing Commission without delay.
Larey, ex-official secretary to the commission, said, however, the commissioners had received a report from High Park, Inc., of Buffalo, N. Y., on its stockholders and sports and concession interests.

Larey said the report was too general to be acceptable and he has asked for more information. The commission wants to know the identities of High Park's business associates in other tracks, sports ventures and concessions.
High Park has gained control of Southland's Board of Directors, Southland flared into the news last month when Sen. Clark and acting track manager, said once Bell of Parkin and others Tuesday the request would be submitted to the state Racing Commission without delay.
Larey, ex-official secretary to the commission, said, however, the commissioners had received said Wednesday that the controversy over the track was a "very interesting battle."

"I don't know that the original investors from Chicago were known for their savory character," Rockefeller said. He said subsequent investors in the track, some from New Orleans, had some questionable friends and not of the best character.

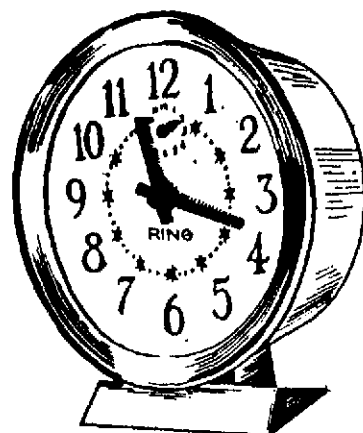

Boys State Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bill McGraw of Fort Smith was elected governor of Boys State here Wednesday night.
Phillip Herndon of Little Rock Central High School was chosen lieutenant governor.

Demotion to Be Probed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The chairman of the state Police Commission said Wednesday he will conduct a complete investigation into the demotion and transfer of a State Police officer Tuesday.
Clark H. Ralston of Little Rock said the commission was not informed about the demotion of Everett E. Donham from captain to lieutenant and his transfer from Warren to Fort Smith.
Ralston said the commission will review the matter at its June 20 meeting.

Oakland, Mets Get First Choice

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The big leaguers of the future were up for grabs today as the 20 major league baseball clubs and the four expansion teams took part in the annual June draft of free agents.

The New York Mets and Oakland Athletics, who had the No. 1 and No. 2 picks, hoped to come up with something approaching the prizes in the original 1965 draft.

Approximately a dozen of the '65 class now wear major league uniforms, including Rick Monday, the center fielder of the Athletics, the No. 1 pick who signed for a $104,000 bonus three years ago.

Montreal, Seattle, San Diego and Kansas City will take part in the Class A division of the draft in that order, following the 20 operating clubs. However, the Class A draft follows three other rounds so Montreal, drafting No. 21 in that division, actually will be getting the 81st pick.

Each of the current 20 clubs pick one man in the major league round. Each of the 20 Class Triple A farms and 20 Class Double A farms pick one. Then comes the Class A draft which is unlimited.

In 1967 a total of 1,169 players were taken, 975 in the regular phase, covering high school boys and graduating collegians who never had been drafted, and 194 in the secondary phase, covering players drafted previously but not signed.

There is no obligation on the part of the player to sign with the club drafting him. However, he can not sign with any other team. If he is not signed after a certain period, his name goes back in the pool to be selected again when he next is eligible.

The draft is due to carry through Friday.

In the regular phase clubs draft in inverse order to their 1967 finish. In the secondary phase, the order has been determined by lot.

Warmath heads the College Stars

CHICAGO (AP) — Murray Warmath of Minnesota heads a five-man staff of assistants named by head Coach Norm Van Brocklin for the College All-Stars who meet the Green Bay Packers in Soldier Field Aug. 2.

Warmath is the first collegiate coach on the staff in many years. He completed his 14th season at Minnesota last year as the Gophers shared the Big Ten title.

Van Brocklin, former Minnesota Viking coach and 12-year National Football League quarterback, will be making his All-Star game debut.

Joining Warmath on the staff are four former pro stars: Carl Taseff, former cornerback for the Baltimore Colts; Bob Tonnoff, longtime tackle for the San

Sneaky Play Fails to Halt Cards

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Writer
The Houston Astros pulled a sneaky trick on the red-faced St. Louis Cardinals and wound up with as much to show for it as the Pittsburgh Pirates, who caused their own embarrassment.

The Astros and Cardinals were locked in a 1-1 deadlock in the seventh inning Wednesday night when Julian Javier of St. Louis was tagged out at second base on the old hidden ball trick.

But the Cardinals wiped the egg off their faces and unloaded consecutive hits by Curt Flood, Roger Maris and Orlando Cepeda in the eighth for a run that sent them to a 3-1 victory, their eighth straight.

Pittsburgh never had that chance to make amends as Los Angeles scored in the last of the 10th inning for a 2-1 victory when Maury Wills and Jerry May let in the winning run with errors on the same play.

Gary Nolan, troubled by a sore arm most of the season, left hard-hitting Atlanta a bit chagrined by stopping the Braves on three hits in pitching Cincinnati to a 10-0 rout.

In afternoon games in the National League, Tom Seaver and the New York Mets halted the Chicago Cubs 4-2, and Woody Fryman hurled Philadelphia by San Francisco 2-1 with a six-hit

In the American League, Detroit edged Boston 5-4, Cleveland blanked the Chicago White Sox 1-0, Baltimore bounced California 7-1, the New York Yankees hammered Minnesota 7-2 and Washington tripped Oakland 3-1.

Houston's moment for joy came after Javier singled and reached second base with two out as St. Louis pitcher Larry Jaster bunted and was thrown out by losing hurler Larry Dierker with second baseman Julio Gotay covering first base.

Gotay, a former Cardinals who failed to win the second base job from Javier in the early 1960s, kept the ball and walked back to second base and first baseman Rusty Staub went in to chat with Dierker. Javier stepped off the bag and, surprise, Gotay finally got him off second.

But the first-place Cardinals wasted little time erasing the glee of the Astros and saddled them with a fifth consecutive loss on Cepeda's hit and a run-scoring double by Lou Brock in the ninth.

Jaster, 4-2, allowed only six hits and the run off him was only the second earned marker he has given in 33 1-3 innings this season. He left after walking the first hitter in the ninth and rookie Wayne Granger retired the next three batters.

Bill Singer, 5-5, of the Dodgers and Al McBean, also 5-5, of Pittsburgh were locked in a 1-1 duel when embarrassment set in on the Pirates. Paul Popovich opened the 10th with a single and Versailles forced him at second. After Ron Fairly batted for Singer and popped out, the fun began when Wes Parker singled to center.

The throw from the outfield to third base got by Wills, extra embarrassing for a former Dodger who had his greatest days in Dodger Stadium. Versailles tried to score on the error and did when catcher May dropped the throw home.

Nolan, a rookie sensation in 1967, was making only his second start this season and had the Braves hanging their heads as he didn't allow a runner past second base. He had plenty of support as Lee May and Tony Perez each slammed two-run homers and Perez drove in two more with a single.

Seaver, given only 19 runs in his first 11 starts, raised his record to 3-5 although he left in the eighth inning with a pulled muscle in his left side. He also ignited a three-run fifth inning with a single.

Fryman won his eighth game in 12 decisions and his fifth in a row by outpitching Gaylord Perry. A sacrifice fly by Tony Gonzalez and an error by Nate Oliver gave the Phillies their two runs in the first inning. Fryman gave up his first earned run in 38 1-3 innings when Willie Mays slammed his 10th homer in the second.

have to win every exhibition game," Landry said. "If you get too high in the exhibition season, the team will flatten out."

Then he smiled and said: "I certainly would like for us to have some momentum built up on Oct. 28. That could be a key game."

Pepitone Drives in Six Runs

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
It was a simply grand evening for Joe Pepitone and Dave Johnson but not so good for Buddy Bradford.

Pepitone drove in six runs—four of them with a grand slam home run—leading the New York Yankees to a 7-2 romp over Minnesota Wednesday night.

Johnson also tagged a grand slam and Baltimore belted California 7-1.

But Bradford was $5 lighter in the wallet as the first victim of Eddie Stanky's campaign to wake up his Chicago White Sox. The Sox bowed 1-0 to Cleveland and Bradford was the only player to violate Stanky's new Golden Rules.

In other American League action Wednesday, Detroit nipped Boston 5-4 and Washington clipped Oakland 3-1.

In the National League, New York dropped Chicago 4-2, Cincinnati walloped Atlanta 10-0, Philadelphia shaded San Francisco 2-1, St. Louis dropped Houston 3-1 and Los Angeles slipped by Pittsburgh 2-1 in 10 innings.

Pepitone unloaded his fourth career grand slam and second against Dean Chance in the first inning and the Yankees coasted after that. Horace Clarke led off with a single and Roy White and Mickey Mantle walked before Pepitone connected.

In the fifth inning, after the Twins had cut the lead in half on consecutive homers by Harmon Killebrew and Tony Oliva, White and Mantle walked, setting up Pepitone again. This time Joe hit a sinking liner that got past Ted Uhlaender's diving try and rolled to the wall for a triple.

Mel Stottlemyre, 7-4, coasted with a five-hitter, disturbed only by the consecutive homers by Killebrew and Oliva.

A single by Brooks Robinson and two walks loaded the bases for Baltimore against California's Clyde Wright in the fifth inning and Johnson sliced a 315-foot homer just inside the right field foul line.

Curt Motton had homered earlier for the Orioles and Jim Hardin coasted with a five-hitter for his seventh victory.

Bradford failed to score a runner from third base with less than two out—one of three sins White Sox $5 for every violation. The others are failure to advance a runner who reached second with less than two out and failure to advance a runner in a bunt situation.

The ground rules were installed after Chicago had dropped 3-2 and 2-1 decisions at the hands of the Indians. The improvement was not immediately noticeable.

Stan Williams was in almost absolute control until the eighth so Stanky didn't have much chance to put his system to work. Duane Josephson opened with a pinch double and Russ Snyder advanced him on a fly ball. But Bradford bounced out, invoking the fine, and Sandy Alomar, off the hook with two out, struck out, ending the inning.

Mike Paul and Hal Kurtz bailed Williams out of a ninth inning jam—no fines incurred, though—to complete the shut-out.

Jose Cardenal drove in Cleveland's only run with a second-inning single after Duke Sims had doubled.

Frank Howard boomed his 21st homer of the year, carrying Washington to its victory over Oakland. Howard's two-run shot in the sixth inning landed some eight rows up in the left field stands at D.C. Stadium and snapped a 1-1 tie.

Two Boston errors and a wild pitch helped Detroit to four runs on only two hits in the seventh inning and a comeback victory over the Red Sox.

Denny McLain won his ninth game with Joe Foy's error helping the Tigers get started in the seventh and Rico Petrocelli's wild throw allowing the tying and winning runs to score.

Athletics in College Big Business

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — A visitor to the University of Alabama campus seeking a conference with head football coach Paul "Bear" Bryant is directed first to a sumptuous, $3,294,000 structure with a glistening dome.

He is led to a second floor foyer rich in Oriental trappings and mosaics, through a cordon of secretaries and into a large, fashionably decorated room that might have come off Wall Street.

The wall is paneled. The drapes are thick and luxurious. The table is mahogany and behind it is a tall, ladder-back chair—The Man's chair. There is a divan, also two upholstered chairs for guests.

This luxury surrounds the headquarters staff of the nation's most successful college football team.

The financial squeeze which is gripping many of the nation's major university athletic programs because of skyrocketing inflation fails to manifest itself in this rock bed of football power.

Bryant has been at Alabama, his alma mater, since 1958. Since 1959, the Crimson Tide has not been out of the Top Ten football rankings. They were national champions in 1951, 1956 and 1957, third in 1958 when they were unbeaten.

Over the period of the last eight years, they have the best record in the country—75 victories, eight defeats and five ties. They have played in nine straight bowl games.

The new athletic complex, opened this year, covers two acres. It is called The Coliseum. It has 15,000 theatre-type chairs to be used for basketball, concerts and convocations. It is cooled by 270 tons of air-conditioning. It houses dressing rooms, film studios and all athletic offices.

"We don't spend a quarter of the taxpayer's money," says Bryant.

Alabama's athletic program is self-sustaining—thanks to its football success—and operates virtually independently of the rest of the university.

The athletic fund not only pays the full freight for the over-all sports program but usually has enough left over to pass along sizeable contributions to the university.

Five years ago the fund donated $300,000. Recently, another $200,000 was given to a fund drive.

"We have been responsible for raising salaries of the faculty," Bryant said.

philosophy is: "Winning is the only thing." "A tie," he once said, "is like kissing your sister."

He has 13 assistant coaches, two graduate assistants and four under-graduate assistants. Each of the 13 assistants has his own private office, only slightly less luxurious than that of his boss. All offices—even Bryant's—are equipped with a blackboard, two pieces of chalk and two erasers.

They hold coaches' sessions in a board room that would do justice to the board of directors at General Motors.

Alabama gives 40 football scholarships a year—the conference limit—and keeps its total within the 125 limit. It has 25 basketball scholarships, eight for track, eight for baseball, five for swimming and five divided between golf and tennis.

The football players are the aristocrats.

They live to themselves in a colonial three-story brick structure called Paul W. Bryant Hall but referred to as the Bear Bryant Hilton. It's just like a hotel with a carpeted lobby with circular fireplace, study rooms, private dining room and kitchen.

Alabama's athletic budget runs around $1,500,000 a year. Contrary to common belief, the athletic coffers aren't fattened by bowl appearances.

"Our biggest purse was $215,000 from the Orange Bowl in 1966," a spokesman said. "Of this, $100,000 went to the conference. The rest was spent on the Miami trip. We took the entire athletic staff and, as usual, we went first class."

Donation Nonpolitical

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Three Atlanta high school youths favored Gov. Lester Maddox Sunday with a nonpolitical donation—a white goose named Mac.

The boys, Jim Patton, Steve Bishoff and George Knight, said there was no particular occasion for the gift; they just wanted the governor to have it.

Maddox accepted the nearly grown gander and set it loose in the fountain in front of the governor's mansion.

There are no other geese on the premises, but Mac may find a playmate in another fountain dweller, Leaping Lester II, a frog.

Iowa State Denies Claim of Negroes

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Iowa State University's athletic council said Wednesday night an investigation shows there is no basis for a charge that Negro athletes have been discriminated against by coaches at the school.

And, it warned the Negroes in a strongly worded statement that if they follow through with a threatened boycott of athletic teams, they will be dropped from the squad, be barred from further participation and automatically forfeit their scholarships.

The Negro athletes, members of a group called the ISU Black Students Organization, had presented a list of demands to an athletic council committee May 20.

The group called for the firing of trainer Bob Billins and baseball Coach L. C. "Cap" Timm "unless they have a change of attitude" and asked that basketball Coach Glen Anderson "be forced to change his despotism and prejudices toward black athletes."

The group said if its demands were not met "in full" the members "are fully prepared to boycott all athletics in which we participate..."

Iowa State has about 25 Negro athletes receiving scholarships now.

Took Years But Gonzales Hits Semis

PARIS (AP) — It took him 19 years but Pancho Gonzales has again reached the semifinals of the French tennis championships. He didn't make the finals then and he's not expected to do it now.

"I never thought I would be back here again with a chance to make the final," said Gonzales. "Thank heavens for open tennis."

The 40-year-old Californian faces Rod Laver of Australia, king of the professionals, in one of today's all-pro semifinals. The other pairs Australia's Ken Rosewall against Andre Gimeno of Spain.

In the women's semis, Mrs. Billie Jean King, a pro from Long Beach, Calif., plays her old rival, Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., now the top American amateur, and another pro, England's Mrs. Ann Haydon Jones, meets Mrs. Annette du Plooy, a South African amateur.

Gonzales disposed of Australia's Roy Emerson 7-5, 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 6-4 Wednesday and then recalled that he lost to Budge Patty in the 1949 semifinals. Later that year he won his second U.S. championship and then turned pro.

Arkansas Leaders Shocked

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas political leaders joined the rest of the world today in reacting with shock to the attempted assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in Los Angeles.

"It seems incredible that this additional tragedy has struck the Kennedy family, and that this nation has suffered another senseless act of violence," said Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. "Our prayers are with Sen. Kennedy and his family, and with our nation."

"The shooting of Sen. Robert Kennedy is a shocking tragedy, not only for his family but also for the American people," said Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., in Fayetteville.

"All of us, I am sure, feel a profound sympathy for the Kennedys and pray for the speedy recovery of the senator," Fulbright said. "We also feel a deep sorrow and concern for our troubled country, so afflicted by violence and unrest."

"It is a terrible tragedy, and I am deeply saddened by this unfortunate occurrence," said Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark. "I think it points up and emphasizes the necessity for stronger law enforcement in this country, and I think that in this are all citizens have a supreme task in trying to bring about law enforcement."

"It applies to all of us, including the government itself and the highest court. It is imperative to the national security that we strengthen law enforcement effectively."

Something Wrong With America

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Something's wrong with us, something blind, hard and wanton which triggers the fury and the fanatic's bullets. That is the assessment by religious leaders of the United States' virus of violence.

In the aftermath of the shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, they saw in that event and in other recent destructive upheavals and deaths both a moral sickness and smoldering hostilities pervading American society.

"We've lost the sense of the sanctity of life," Rabbi Dr. Abraham Heschel, a noted Biblical scholar, said Wednesday. "We've become a nation of cynics, master debunkers of quality, nobility and the great values."

"We've surrendered our religious traditions for a cheap, self-regulating attitude which assumes it has no need of higher laws. It's a conspiracy of all of us. We've all failed."

It is this general environment of shattered standards, strong-arm tactics and undisciplined behavior—not just the mania of individual perpetrators—which the religious thinkers cited as a catalyst to the violent acts.

"Statistically, the number that commit the acts are small, but they're inclined to do it by the whole atmosphere of brute force," said the Rev. Robert McNamara, a Fordham University sociologist.

"We're sick, sick, sick. We've allowed the mass entertainment media, television, movies and comic books, to glorify violence in a terribly unhealthy way. The amount of sadism and masochism is incredible."

Others cited the growth of militarism including the Vietnam war, the trend toward permissiveness and the over-all mechanization of life as engendering intense frustrations coupled with exploding disorder.

"The crushing burden of our enormously complex social structures produces an inner tension and a sense of helplessness that makes people feel threatened and to react violently," said the Rev. Avery Dulles, of the Jesuits' Woodstock College in Maryland.

"It's a perilous time. We're going to have to find some more orderly way of channeling the new dynamics of change."

The widespread availability of arms also was seen as accommodating the outbreaks of sniper fire in cities and assassinations, including those of the late President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

"The ease with which deadly weapons can be obtained in this country is really shocking," said the Rev. John Macquarrie, a British-born Anglican now teaching at Union Theological Seminary.

He also cited a spreading attitude that people, in confronting society's power structures, "must be violent to establish their own identity." While historically such measures may sometimes be justified, he said, "so much of the present violence seems completely mindless and directionless."

GOP Appointed County Judge

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—W.P. Mitcham, 68, of Star City, a Republican, was appointed by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Wednesday to assume duties of county judge in Lincoln County.

Mitcham succeeds E. G. Brockman, who is suffering from emphysema and has been declared incapacitated.

Presidential Campaigns May Change

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—In America, the men who would be president have walked freely among the people whose votes they sought.

But can they now, after Robert F. Kennedy was fatally shot by a gunman who lurked among cheering supporters?

The bullet which crashed into Kennedy's brain already has changed, and could doom, the free and open campaign style which has marked the politics of presidential year 1968.

Kennedy based his campaign for the White House on the argument that the people, not politicians, should choose the Democratic nominee. He walked through surging crowds, a friend and former FBI agent named Bill Barry often his only shield.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy,

Kennedy's rival in the primaries, was not a security conscious man. There was never any evidence of bodyguards around him.

Los Angeles Police Chief Thomas Reddin said after the Kennedy shooting that the New Yorker's campaign forces had twice turned down offers of police protection for their candidate. Reddin said candidates do not normally want policemen around them, for they want no barrier against the voter.

But now?

Even as Kennedy lay on the operating table in a Los Angeles hospital, President Johnson made a major change in the campaign security system.

He ordered the Secret Service to assign a protective detail to each major candidate, borrowing from other federal law enforcement agencies as necessary.

And agents were swiftly deployed, to Good Samaritan Hospital where Kennedy was under care, and to join the other candidates.

Travs Win 7th Game of Last 8

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP)—The Arkansas Travs won their seventh in their last eight Texas League games Wednesday night by blanking the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs 3-0 in 10 innings.

This was their second victory in a row over the Spurs.

A bases-loaded walk to Boots Day in the 10th triggered the big inning for the Travs when they scored all their runs.

Spur catcher Larry Howard was ejected for disputing the ball-four call of Umpire Ron Uzelac, and the Travs went on to score two more on Lerch Lee's single.

Pinch-hitter Jerry Davand legged out a bunt single to load the bases and with two out, Day drew his walk on a full-count pitch.

Joe DiFazio blanked the Spurs on six singles in nine innings to notch his fourth victory in eight decisions. Joe Hamende finished up the game. The loser for the Spurs was Secundino Almonte.

Andy Finlay hanged out three hits, including a homer and a double, scored three runs and knocked in five as the Braves took their second straight win over the Blues.

Chaplain Gets Award for Saving 20 GIs

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN

AP Special Correspondent

SAIGON (AP) — Father Angelo Liteky, a Roman Catholic chaplain who rescued 20 wounded GIs in a jungle fire fight, stood at nervous attention today between a row of armored vehicles to receive the Distinguished Service Cross, the highest award ever given to a chaplain in Vietnam.

The medal, America's second highest for heroism, was pinned on the Jacksonville, Fla., priest by Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, deputy U.S. commander in Vietnam, in a simple ceremony at Forward Fire Base Stephanie, a muddy patch of nowhere three miles west of Saigon.

Some of the watching infantrymen and helicopter pilots were there in the jungles that humid day, Dec. 6, when a company moved out in search of the Viet Cong mortar teams that had shelled the base camp of the 4th Battalion, 12th Infantry the night before.

"The padre always went along on our operations," said Platoon Sgt. Daniel Garrison of Beloit, Wis., who won the Silver Star in the same action. "He's the kind of guy who liked to sit down and talk with you over a beer or a can of C rations."

But it was the 37-year-old priest's first time under fire when the patrol encountered a well entrenched North Vietnamese and Viet Cong battalion and was stunned with an opening barrage of automatic weapons, claymore mines and recoilless rifles.

That afternoon in A Company and the two companies that came to the rescue 21 men were killed and 74 wounded, nearly half of them in the first few minutes.

Father Liteky said the last rites over four infantrymen. Then there was a tremendous explosion, a claymore mine, knocking two men off their feet. To the priest's amazement, both were alive. He lifted one man onto his chest and began dragging him back off the trail. Then he went back for the other one. Bullets ripped the trees nearby.

Mrs. James Walker shows homemakers how to prepare line or modern arrangements using few flowers and bold foliage or lime materials. Several tricks were shared in using available materials to add a touch of beauty and dignity to the home.

All afternoon, the jut-jawed priest, who washed out as a quarterback at the University of Florida, seemed to be everywhere hauling out wounded, carrying stretchers, bringing up water and ammunition.

"Don't go up there any more, Father," Garrison told him, "until things have quieted down." Then there was the hissing sound of a rocket and everyone dove for cover. Father Liteky was hit in the neck and felled by the flying shards, but he refused evacuation.

The rest of the day, the priest gave the last rites to dead and dying infantrymen. He moved about without a helmet and had given his flak jacket to a wounded man.

"The guys just seem to feel better having you around," the priest said today, plainly embarrassed by the big medal dangling crookedly from his fatigues shirt. "It just seems to make them more assured. And then when you can give the last rites to a dying man, you're glad you were there, but you always have to be careful that saying the prayers doesn't shock them into realizing how bad off they are."

The padre's buddies said, Father Liteky has extended for another six months in Vietnam.

Barred From Parliament
Roman Catholics were barred from holding seats in Great Britain's Parliament until 1829, when the Catholic Emancipation Act was passed allowing them to become members.

New Politics in America Is Rat Race

LONDON (AP) — Viewed through various foreign eyes, the United States is a place where life is a rat race, the "new politics" is an expensive version of the old variety and British tourists may run into financial difficulty.

"Life in the United States and only those who can stand the pace make it to the top," Malaysian Finance Minister Tan Siew Sin told a financial management seminar in Kuala Lumpur.

"Whatever may be the shortcomings of the mightiest and richest nation in the world, we must at least admit that they work hard from the very top downwards," Tan said.

In an Associated Press sampling of foreign opinion, a warning to Britons thinking of visiting America came from Ivor Key, New York correspondent of the London Daily Express.

"Don't come," he wrote, "unless you have a friend or relative to stay with."

Key said two plane loads of British tourists in New York recently had trouble getting by on the $156 their government allowed each of them for a 17-day holiday.

"Before setting off, they were told by an airline that if they stayed in a modest hotel they would have about $5 a day to live on, and might even be able to afford a boat trip around Manhattan and ride up the Empire State Building, but with hamburgers and the cheapest sandwich costing 84 cents and a glass of beer 60 cents they are cutting their budget a bit fine," he wrote.

Mrs. Lahroy Spates and Mrs. James Walker, members of the Iris Garden Club, represented the Hope Council of Garden Clubs in sharing the art of arranging flowers last week at the School Administration Building to over 40 interested Hempstead County homemakers. The Extension Homemakers had expressed special desire to the Hope Council of Garden Clubs for this training.

Dedication of Dam Lock

OSARK, Ark. (AP) — The dedication of Ozark Lock and Dam will be July 12.

President Johnson has been invited to attend.

The dam is one of the major structures in the Arkansas River navigation project.

he wrote.

"One of them insisted on taking an American friend for a few drinks and dinner at a modest restaurant. It cost him $30 and almost broke him for the rest of the trip."

Peter Jenkins, covering the American presidential campaign for the British newspaper Guardian, discussed the new politics.

"There does seem to be some desire for greater political participation and it may grow; within a few years half the population of America is going to be aged under 25," Jenkins wrote.

"All of the candidates are conscious of a situation of changing political patterns and are staking out special claims to the shifting elements. But it's far too simple, and almost certainly not true, to see this as a struggle of the 'people against the politicians.' It looks more like a struggle between one set of politicians and another, between the 'outs' and the 'ins'—and there is nothing very novel about that."

"What are called the 'new politics' strike the observer as very much like the old politics practiced in a changing situation with the aid of new techniques and at vastly increased expense."

THIS GUY WAS LED ASTRAY?

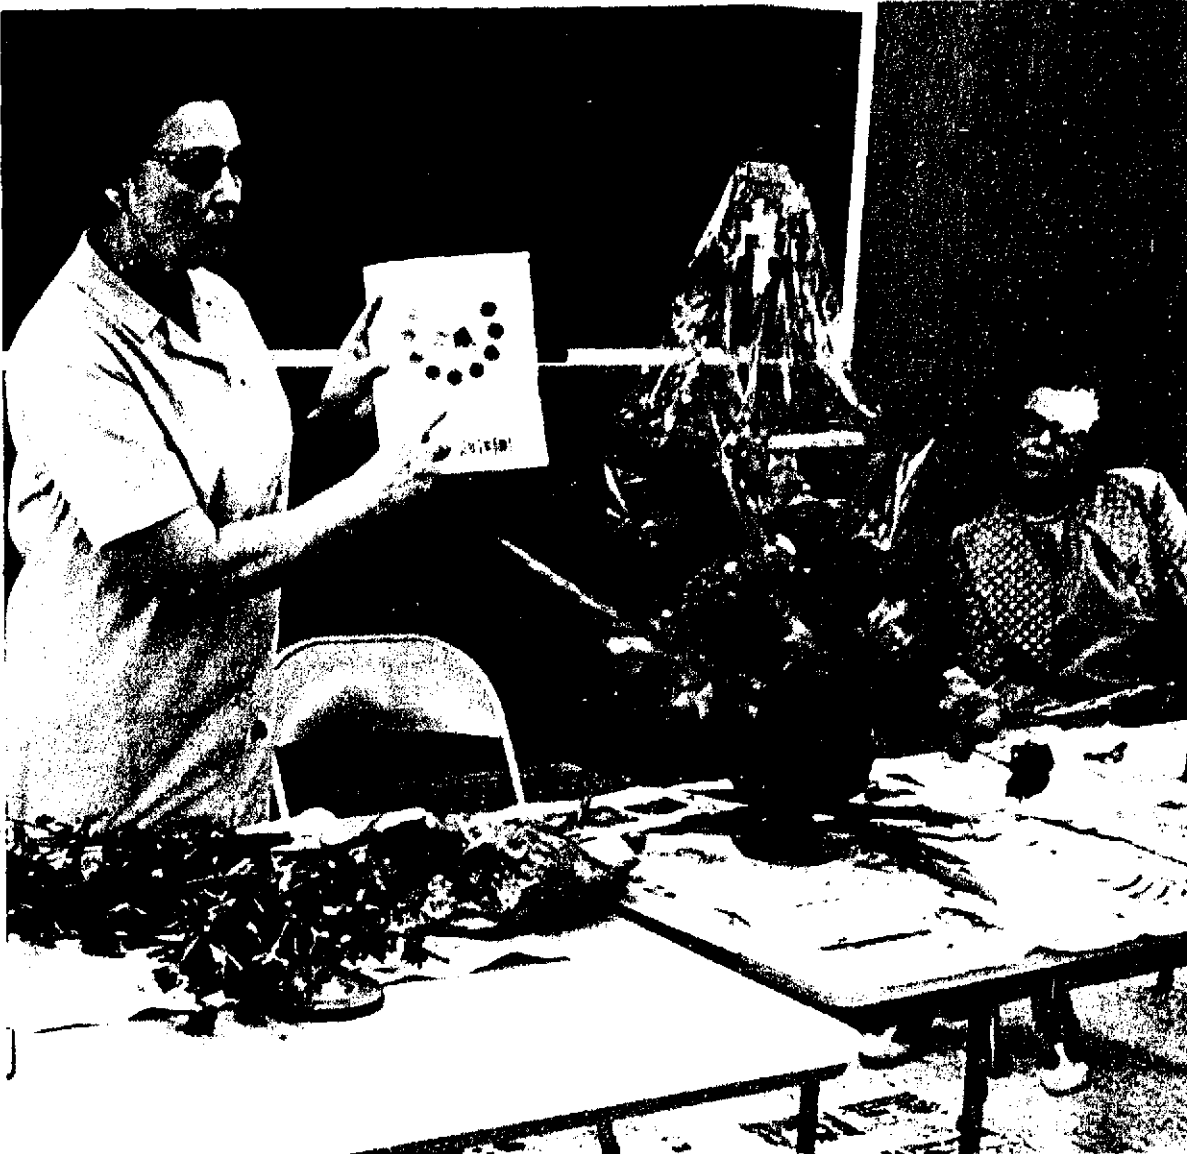

Dear Helen: I have been going with this girl for about a year, and all she wants to do is neck. Every time I turn around I get one planted smack on the kisser. I don't mind so much but the other night she sneaked out some blackberry wine from the house, and well — I'm told I got too frisky. Nothing serious, but she's pretty mad at me. . . . She says, but I don't think she is, really.

I have a "good guy in the white hat" image, and I don't want her spreading this around, especially since it might get back to my parents who would kill me.

If I apologize, it might happen again — heck, I'm not THAT good. If I say it's her fault, she'll smear me to get even. So what I do? — FOOL

Dear Helen: You didn't say, but I gather you'd just as soon break up with "Siren-ella." Her plans for you don't exactly jibe with the "good guy" image.

So apologize, tell her you "can no longer trust yourself alone with her," and she'd better find a nicer guy. You might even imply you've discussed the situation with your father, but her parents

Mrs. Lahroy Spates refers to color wheel in selecting colors for flower arrangements. Mrs. Spates prepared arrangements of monochromatic (one-color) and analogous (related color) harmonies. She said the trend was to use everything, using a blend of colors. When there is a mixture of colors they tend to tone one another down. Lighter colors should be used on outer edge unless a lot of lighter is being used.

Wallace Not Attracting Attention

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)

— Four years ago George Wallace racked up 30 per cent of the vote or better in Democratic primaries for president in Indiana, Wisconsin and Maryland.

The heavy balloting for the then governor of Alabama, known principally as a foe of racial integration, was widely interpreted as a white backlash vote.

But this year the name of Wallace has attracted little attention in the primaries, and he has looked to his critics like a fading candidate.

Not so, says Bill Jones, coordinator of Wallace's campaign. He says the primary outcome was anticipated and was due to the grand strategy of the campaign.

The reason: Wallace decided this time to run as a third-party candidate and to stay out of Democratic primaries. So his efforts had been toward getting on the ballot in November, not on the primaries.

"Primaries are designed to get convention votes," said Jones. "We're not interested in the conventions. We're running in November."

Starting Thursday, Wallace will resume the public campaign he dropped for a month because of his wife's death from cancer. He will swing through a three-day speaking tour in Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Maryland.

His goal: To give impetus to petition drives in those states to get his name on the ballot.

His campaign headquarters says he already has met the balloting requirements in 22 other states and has petition drives going in five more. Jones said he expects to get on the ballot in every state except perhaps Alaska, Idaho and Ohio.

State Policeman Is Demoted

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Police Capt. Everett E. Donham has been demoted to lieutenant and transferred from Warren to Fort Smith, it was announced Tuesday by State Police headquarters.

State Police Director Ralph Scott was not available for comment, and no reason was given for the change.

Donham was considered a friend of Kenneth McKee, who recently was relieved as director of the Highway Patrol.

Silver Star for Arkansas

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sgt. I.C. James M. Barnes of North Little Rock has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in Vietnam.

Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie V. Barnes, was cited for his action Jan. 30 while on a combat mission as a Special Forces adviser to a South Vietnamese unit.

Well said!

Now, for Leap Year as seen from the male angle: Fellas, if a girl asks you out on a Leap Year date, by all means, don't park, and don't "go in for a nightcap" afterwards. And remember the girl who kiddingly asks you to marry her — means it!

How do I know? I'm engaged.

Opening lead—♥ K

In a recent expert team game, both North-South pairs reached an impossible spade slam. At each table, the opening lead was the heart king and each South player saw a chance to make his contract. He would discard a club on dummy's ace of hearts and start on diamonds. Unfortunately for all South players, West was unkind enough to ruff the third diamond with the nine of trumps and the hand would collapse.

The bidding in the box is that of the first table. South was rather critical of North's jump to four spades and pointed out that, if North just had five spades to the king and nothing else, the slam would be practically a lay-down.

We agree. North's hand might hold the cards to produce game opposite some minimum opening bids but we play percentages and, in general, there would be no game unless South could rebid over a single raise by North.

At the other table, North made the bid that we consider correct and raised to two spades. South might well have simply bid game but he was looking for a slam and bid three diamonds. North proceeded to jump to four spades, whereupon South bid six. The same lead and the same one down resulted.

North and South had one of those happy partnerships in which each partner tries to blame himself for any bad result. North said immediately, "I should have bid three hearts over your three diamonds. That surely would have warned you of duplication and you would have contented yourself by merely going to game."

South replied, "Yes, I would have, and three hearts would have been a better call, but I did not have to go to the slam. I might well have bid only five spades. After all, you only raised to two as your first bid."

We think both North and South were correct in their analysis and even more correct in their partnership approach to discussing disaster hands. They will improve with each session of play together. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Carbon Monoxide Hazard In Rush-Hour Traffic

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

With the warmer weather, an ever-greater number of cars are venturing onto our highways. The larger their number in any given area, the slower their pace and the greater the concentration of carbon monoxide in the surrounding atmosphere. Authorities believe that, even though the concentration may not be enough to cause a headache, it may be sufficient to cause drowsiness and increase the driver's chance of having an accident.

This is especially true for drivers who must spend an hour or more traveling to and from work during the so-called rush hours. The highest levels of the poisonous carbon monoxide are invariably found in the region of intersections controlled by either stop signs or lights.

When the concentration reaches 60 parts per million (and it often goes to 85 parts or more in these locations), 10 per cent of the commuter's hemoglobin is inactivated by carbon monoxide replacing oxygen in his red blood cells. If he is smoking while driving, as much as 15 per cent may be inactivated.

The ill effects are determined by the level of carbon monoxide in the air and the duration of the exposure. There is no easy solution to this problem but a staggering of rush-hour traffic should help.

LBJ Leads Nation in Mourning

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Johnson led the nation in mourning today as Americans great and small reacted in grief and sorrow to the tragic assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The President, saying Kennedy had never abandoned faith in America although he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy, called for the nation to observe a national day of mourning Sunday.

In a proclamation issued upon learning of Kennedy's death today, the President directed that American flags on all federal buildings be flown at half-staff until Kennedy's burial.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, expressed a "profound personal loss" at Kennedy's death and called on all Americans to recommit themselves to the principles of humanity and individual justice.

"May our nation find the strength, the faith, and the wisdom to dispel the forces of irrational hate among us and to replace them with the love of man and God," Humphrey said.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said in a statement in New York that Kennedy's death "is a terrible tragedy both for a family and a nation which have known too many such tragedies in recent times."

Nixon said, "Sen. Kennedy was a man of tremendous energy and vitality. He was one of the great popular leaders in American history. Our deepest sympathies go out to the family of Sen. Kennedy in this hour of grief."

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said the death of Kennedy was "an unspeakable tragedy and a terrible loss to the nation."

Rockefeller proclaimed "the day of burial as a day of mourning in this state."

A state of mourning for California was declared by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

"I have directed that the period extend through the senator's funeral and that all flags in California be flown at half mast," he said.

"My sympathies go out to Mrs. Kennedy and the senator's children as well as his parents and other members of his family. Prayers of all Americans are with them."

Two men were arrested here in connection with the theft of some tires at Madlock's Station, City Police reported. Officers Sinyard and Clark arrested William D. Justice, 23, Prescott and Dennis G. Powell, 24, Hope for the theft. They were turned over to the Sheriff's Office for prosecution.

Small Business Can Survive in Land of Multibillion Giants

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Can a relatively small, family owned business thrive in a U.S. oil industry dominated by multibillion dollar giants?

"Why not?" ask Jack Vickers Jr., "It has a lot of things in its favor, and it doesn't have to keep 18 million stockholders happy."

Vickers at 42 is board chairman of the Vickers Petroleum CO., Inc., headquartered in Wichita, Kan., which is celebrating its golden anniversary this year.

The firm, now in the $30-million-a year class, refines petroleum products and operates 800 service stations in six Midwest and southwest states.

In 1918, Jack Vickers Sr., a chance-taking young man as much at home aboard a polo pony as an oil rig, borrowed $5,000 and gambled it all on a single oil lease. He hit black gold.

Parlaying his winnings, young Jack soon has his production up to 500 barrels a day, then started marketing his own products, also steadily investing in new leases.

He had a family empire consisting of a wife and eight chil-

Humphrey Left as the Main Choice

By HARRY KELLY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's death has removed in a tragic manner the chief challenger to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's quest for the Democratic presidential nomination.

With the New York senator's death, the fateful 1968 election year turned a fatal corner and left what many observers see as an uneven race between Humphrey and his fellow Minnesotan, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Although the Humphrey name has not appeared on any primary ballots, he claims to have built up a long lead by picking up delegates in the tough back-state battles in the nonprimary states while Kennedy and McCarthy were battling it out in primaries.

Many observers felt only the Kennedy mystique and dash could overcome Humphrey's strong base of Democratic "establishment" support among party leaders and labor unions.

Humphrey and his aides had refused to speculate on the political impact of the Kennedy shooting and, along with McCarthy, clamped an indefinite moratorium on campaigning even before the senator's death.

"We think it's not only inappropriate to speculate," said a Humphrey aide, "we think it's offensive."

After the Kennedy shooting, a strategist said, Humphrey aides sent appeals to supporters asking that planned caucuses of Ohio and Michigan delegations, where the vice president hoped to nail down more support, be postponed.

And the strategist said, Humphrey called off plans to begin campaigning in New York for the Empire State's primary. He canceled a schedule calling for him to open his California campaign June 13.

McCarthy, returning to Washington Wednesday night, said he would confer with President Johnson and the vice president "before taking on other political activities of any kind."

And two days later Lee Harvey Oswald who the Warren Commission said killed the President was killed by Jack Ruby, leaving Oswald's Soviet-born wife with their two youngsters in an alien country.

On April 4 of this year Nobel Peace Prize winner Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was slain while

Assassin Hated Jews, Rich Folks

By RICHARD E. MEYER
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — His name is Sirhan Bishara Sirhan.

Police say he is a cool, close-mouthed Jordanian who fired a bullet from close range into the brain of Sen. Robert Kennedy.

Mayor Samuel W. Yorty says Sirhan apparently wrote in a 9-by-12 inch notebook about "the necessity to assassinate Sen. Kennedy before June 5, 1968."

Many — neighbors, former employers and the authorities — say he hates Jews.

He hurt his head in a fall last year, says his mother.

"All I know is he is a nice kid," says one of his four brothers.

A district attorney's investigator revealed today he was told Sirhan had been jailed by Pasadena police last December. But investigator MIT Smith declined to say on what charge Sirhan was arrested.

The record says Sirhan is 24 years old, 5-feet-5, weighs about 120 pounds, has a swarthy complexion and wavy hair. He has been an exercise buff at a race track, wanted to be a jockey and worked in a health food store.

He was under maximum security guard in a hospital ward at the Los Angeles County Central jail, charged with six counts of assault with intent to commit

Kennedy Women Know the True Meaning of 'Widows of Violence'

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — In five years of American history, the assassin's bullet has thrust upon the national scene a new type of woman—the Widow of Violence.

The shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, who lay in extremely critical condition in a Los Angeles hospital, drew attention anew to the procession of tragedy even as many Americans prayed that the senator's wife would escape the same fate.

First, shortly after midnight on June 11, 1963, a bullet killed civil rights leader Medgar Evers in the doorway of his Jackson, Miss., home.

Lying prone on the floor inside the house as they had been taught to do at the sound of gunfire were Evers' wife Myrlie and their three children.

Five months later, on Nov. 22, 1963, President John F. Kennedy was shot down during a Dallas, Tex., motorcade with his wife Jacqueline at his side.

And two days later Lee Harvey Oswald who the Warren Commission said killed the President was killed by Jack Ruby, leaving Oswald's Soviet-born wife with their two youngsters in an alien country.

On April 4 of this year Nobel Peace Prize winner Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was slain while

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy Dies From Assassin's Bullet, World Mourns

RFK Always Sensed It Would Come

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy always sensed it would come some day.

"I play Russian roulette every time I get up in the morning," he would tell friends.

"But I just don't care," he said. "There's nothing I could do about it anyway."

Kennedy has been described as a fatalist, one who never looked beyond the next moment and who was prepared for tragedy any day.

As he lay critically wounded and unconscious in a Los Angeles hospital today, the memory of a long, introspective, and rare conversation surfaced in the minds of the few who had heard it.

Kennedy was relaxing in the rear of the four-engine Lockheed Electra winging through

Commission Named to Seek the Cause of Violence in Nation

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A somber President Johnson has named a blue-ribbon commission to seek the causes of violence in the land—violence that has now stricken Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The chief executive expressed his shock and dismay over the shooting of Kennedy in Los Angeles and told a national television-radio audience Wednesday night that violence, murder and assassination must stop.

"My fellow citizens, we cannot, we just must not, tolerate the sway of violent men among us," he said.

"We must not permit men who are filled with hatred, and careless of innocent lives, to dominate our streets and fill our homes with fear."

Declaring that "I hope and pray that we can learn how to stop it," Johnson announced creation of a 10-member commission to immediately examine what he termed "this tragic phenomenon" of violence and assassination.

He enjoined the commission to seek the help of medical and social scientists in searching for root causes of violence. The panel also will study further steps to prevent assassination and how better to protect public figures.

Commission members include Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, former president of Johns Hopkins University and brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower; Roman Catholic Archbishop Terence J. Cooke of New York, and veteran Congressmen.

No chairman was named immediately.

During his 11-minute address, the President spoke with considerable force and intensity. He deplored the Kennedy shooting and praised the senator's "brilliant career of public service," his "uncommon energy and dedication."

He said: "We pray to God that he will spare Robert Kennedy and will restore him to full health and vigor."

"The Kennedy family has endured sorrow enough, and we pray that this family may be spared more anguish."

Johnson said there was a connection between hatred and lawlessness and the individual act of violence against Kennedy. But he said it would be wrong to conclude "that our country is sick, that it has lost its sense of balance, its sense of direction

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, felled like his President brother by an assassin's bullet, died early today.

His mourning family prepared to take his body home to New York, across the nation Kennedy had hoped to lead as president.

And on Saturday, the senator is to be buried in Arlington National Cemetery, at the hillside plot which is the resting place of his brother, the late John F. Kennedy.

Robert Kennedy, 42, never regained consciousness, never showed signs of recovery after a savage burst of revolver fire sent a bullet plunging into his brain—at the pinnacle of his own campaign for the White House.

Kennedy, his pregnant wife, Ethel at his bedside, died at 1:44 a.m. PDT, little more than 24 hours after the assault at the Ambassador Hotel.

Kennedy's body was to be flown from Los Angeles to New York later today on a jet airplane provided by the White House.

Pierre Salinger, former presidential press secretary, said the body would lie in state Friday at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City.

A Requiem Mass will be held there Saturday morning. Salinger said Kennedy would be buried late Saturday in Arlington, across the Potomac River from Washington, where an eternal flame flickers in memory of John Kennedy, slain four years and seven months ago.

In preparation for Kennedy's last journey, a post mortem was under way at Good Samaritan Hospital in downtown Los Angeles.

President Johnson, the man who succeeded President Kennedy, issued a proclamation calling for a national day of mourning for the senator next Sunday.

Gov. Ronald Reagan declared a state of mourning in California, for the period through the senator's funeral.

As Kennedy died, the man accused of shooting him was under heavy guard at a downtown prison hospital, held in $250,000 bail for a court appearance which had been scheduled Monday.

Sirhan Bishara Sirhan was accused of wielding the .22-caliber revolver which cut down Kennedy and wounded five other people early Wednesday as the senator and his supporters celebrated victory in the California presidential primary.

The Los Angeles sheriff's office refused to say whether Sirhan had been advised that Kennedy was dead.

Sirhan, a Jordanian who had been living in Pasadena, was described by those who knew him as a man inflamed over the hostilities between his native state and Israel. A former employer said he might have been enraged by Kennedy's past words of support for Israel.

Kennedy's mother, Mrs. Rose Kennedy, was told of the death of her son by a niece, Ann Gargan. She was at Hyannis Port, Mass. Mrs. Kennedy—who had campaigned for Robert in the presidential primaries—went to mass at St. Francis Xavier Church.

Mrs. Kennedy had talked by telephone with Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., the family's lone surviving son, who was at Robert's bedside at the end.

Weather to Remain About Same

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The weather in Arkansas is expected to remain warm and humid with widely scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers for the next few days.

High temperatures in the state Wednesday were in the mid 80s in the northwest to the low 90s in the rest of the state.

Little Rock and Walnut Ridge recorded readings of 91 degrees. The mercury reached 90 at Fort Smith, Pine Bluff, Blytheville, Memphis and El Dorado.

QUICK QUIZ

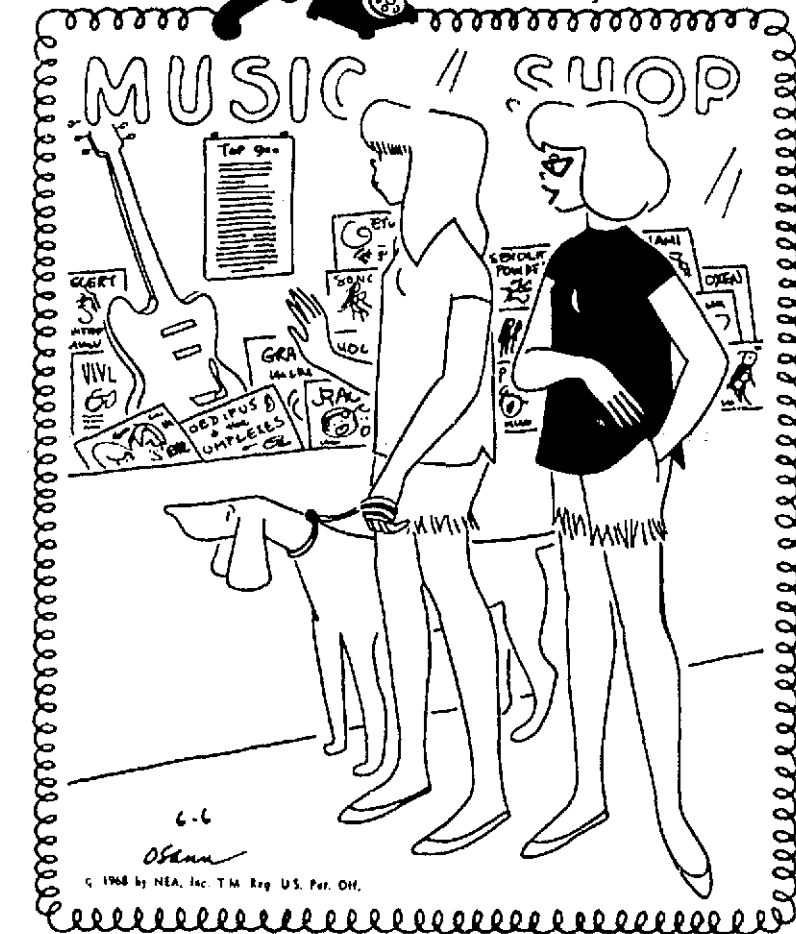

BLONDIE

Q—What fruits were crossed to produce the loganberry?
A—It is the result of a cross between a variety of the wild blackberry of California and a cultivated red raspberry. It receives its name from Judge J. H. Logan who originated the fruit.
Q—Why do we speak of 40 days of Lent when it really lasts over six weeks?
A—The 40 days refers to the fast days. Sundays are feast days. Taking out the six Sundays in Lent, there are 40 days of Lenten observance.

A Bruising Battle Was Eliminated

By HARRY KELLY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has postponed — and possibly eliminated — a bruising backstage battle for convention delegates between the forces of Kennedy, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Humphrey and his aides refused to even speculate that the seriousness of Kennedy's condition had reduced the Democratic presidential contest to an uneven race between McCarthy and the vice president who claims to be far ahead in the delegate count. Many observers felt that only the Kennedy mystique, dash and money could stop Humphrey with his strong party and labor backing.

"We think it's not only inappropriate to speculate," said a Humphrey aide, "we think it's offensive."

"We've put a moratorium on campaigning and we meant it," said another.

The aide said Humphrey supporters had been asked to postpone planned caucuses Saturday of the Ohio and Michigan delegations where the vice president's campaign generals expected to nail down more support.

In addition, he said, Humphrey canceled plans to begin campaigning in New York for the Empire State's primary and had scrubbed a schedule calling for him to begin campaigning in California June 13.

How long will the political moratorium continue?

"We'll just have to wait and see," said one strategist. "No one is sure of anything."

Sen. McCarthy, returning to Washington Wednesday night, said he would confer with Kennedy's aides, President Johnson and Humphrey "before taking on other political activities of any kind."

A Humphrey aide said the vice president would welcome a meeting with McCarthy. He and McCarthy are both from Minnesota and are old friends. Even while competing for the nomination they have reportedly continued to have private chats.

The moratorium comes at a critical turning point in the campaign.

With their primary showdowns completed, Kennedy and McCarthy were preparing to wrestle Humphrey for votes in states that pick their delegates in caucuses and conventions.

After his victories Tuesday in the California and South Dakota primaries, Kennedy has 274 votes in the Associated Press tabulation of national convention delegates already selected. Humphrey has 308 and McCarthy 234 in the AP tabulation.

Humphrey was not entered as a presidential candidate in any primary. He has concentrated on winning delegates in the non-primary states and claims to have more than 600 pledged delegates.

FT. BRAGG, N.C. — Specialist Five Marshall T. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isom White of Route 1, Ozan, Ark., was recently awarded the Army Commendation Medal here for the outstanding performance of duty last year in Vietnam. The medal was presented to Specialist White, now a member of Company B, 4th Battalion, 1st Brigade, by Colonel Robert L. Sickler, 1st Brigade commander at Ft. Bragg's Army Training Center. The citation accompanying the medal praised Specialist White for the job he did as a cook in the 2nd Battalion, 28th Infantry Division in Vietnam.

'Good Name Endureth Forever'

By NORMAN GOLDSTEIN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "A good life hath but a few days, but a good name endureth forever."

That proverb may have been the inspiration for many who make a living out of making names endure, if not forever, at least until they hit the list of best-selling novels or movies.

A quick scan of current book and movie titles shows a penchant for the novelty title, the name to lure the buyer to screen or novel — perhaps knowing not what he buys but a name.

Who can forget, for instance, that unforgettable (unforgivable?) "The Persecution and Assassination of Marat as Performed by the Inmates of the Asylum of Charenton Under the Direction of the Marquis de Sade." For that matter, who can remember it? No one, apparently, and the title of the stage and screen version eventually was shortened to "Marat-Sade," if only for the benefit of theater marquees.

MGM couldn't resist giving a kind of subtitle to "The Fearless Vampire, Or: Pardon Me, But Your Teeth Are in My Neck."

The question title has intrigued some others, too. Bob Booker's book has the title with the subway syndrome, "Pardon Me Sir, But Is My Eye Hurting Your Elbow?" And Richard Frisbie, in his new novel, asks the question that has been bothering us all: "Who Put the Bomb in Father Murphy's Chowder?"

Sex, of course, always helps sales, so Harlan Ellison has a head start with his novel, "Love Ain't Nothing but Sex Misspelled." Another novel title seems to plead for a return to the normal standards of sex: "The Man Who Loved Women," by Ernest Borneman. Alexander Rose reaches for the same nostalgia in his permissive sexual guide with his book, "Memoirs of a Heterosexual," and playwright Paddy Chayefsky hit upon a similar title, "The Latent Heterosexual."

Titles are not always easy to come by, though.

Twentieth Century-Fox started out with "The Connecticut Look" and changed it to "The Feminine Mistake" and "A Guide for the Married Woman" before it settled on "The Secret Life of an American Wife."

Universal had problems deciding what to name the screen version of "The Milk Train Doesn't Stop Here Anymore." They began with "Boom," switched to "Sunburst," then "Goforth" and finally decided on — you guessed it — "Boom."

Columbia seemed to solve the problem with the latest Monkees' film: "Untitled."

After all, that which we call a rose by any other name would smell as sweet. So, what's in a name?

Cities Sound Warning to Politicians

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Municipal League said Wednesday it was time to let the politicians know they can count on the urban vote "only if they show genuine sympathy" for the needs of cities.

The league, in an article in the May issue of its magazine, said, "It is time to let the candidates know our cities and towns must have more general revenues."

The cities want nothing less than the $13.7 million appropriated for them during the 1969-70 fiscal year.

The magazine estimated that the cities will receive only $4.1 million of an $8.7 million appropriation this fiscal year and $5 million of the $13.7 million appropriation next year. The higher figures would have been realized only if state tax collections had reached unexpected proportions.

The league estimates that an additional $15 million a year is needed to bring Arkansas cities up to a minimum standard of services.

This breaks down to an additional $5 million for police, $5 million for fire protection, $3 million for street work and $2 million for other services.

The article pointed out that Arkansas provides only $39.32 in state funds for each city resident, placing the state 49th in this category. The average of the 17 southern and border states is $65.77, the magazine said.

The magazine shows that Arkansas cities will receive only $9 million, or nine per cent of the total, from the locally collected property tax in 1968.

Public schools get the largest share—$78 million dollars or 78 per cent. Counties get $13 million or 13 per cent.

Protecting the cities' share of general and highway revenues are two of seven points in the Municipal League's 1969 legislative program.

Irene Hendrix of Fulton was named first alternate and Cynthia Clay of Ashdown was chosen second alternate.

Thirty 4-H Club members representing eight counties participated in this final in a series of five district contests. The top four participants from each district will compete in the statewide contest during the Arkansas Poultry Festival in Hot Springs on Saturday, June 15.

Participants in the District 4-H Broiler Barbecue contest received training in broiler barbecuing by 4-H Club leaders and county Extension agents and were selected through competition with other Club members to represent their counties in the district contest.

All participants were awarded either blue or red ribbons and shared in prize money provided by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation and the Southwest Arkansas Poultry Festival Committee.

Judges for this contest were: George Metzler, Agricultural Extension Service, Little Rock; Pam Armstrong, Arkansas Livestock and Poultry Commission, Little Rock; and Laurence G. Burns, American Scientific Laboratories, Springdale.

The winners were recognized at the evening barbecue and Poultry Princess Pageant.

ASSASSIN

He is to appear at 8:30 a.m. Monday for a preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge Joan Klein.
Sirhan's index finger was broken and his left ankle sprained in a tussle that ended in his capture, seconds after Kennedy was shot early Wednesday.
Sirhan has talked to police, but not about Kennedy or the shooting. Officers said he was advised of his rights, but didn't want an attorney. He refused to give officers his name.
"It's nice to remain incommunicado," Inspector Pete Hagen quoted him as saying.
He "may have been inflamed" by Kennedy's call for U.S. jets for Israel during a televised campaign debate Saturday night, said a New York committee on American-Arab relations.
"He was violently pro-Jordan and anti-Israel," said John Shear, who worked with Sirhan at Hollywood Park race track. "When there was trouble between Jordan and Israel, he would become inflamed."

With permission from Sirhan's family, police recovered two notebooks from his room. They contain 18 to 20 pages of handwriting. Some in Arabic, most in English.
In a notation entered either May 17 or 18, the mayor said, Sirhan apparently wrote "a direct reference to the necessity to assassinate Sen. Kennedy before June 5, 1968."
Kennedy was shot when June 5 was only a few minutes old. It was the first anniversary of the beginning of the six-day Arab-Israel war.
"My son — it can't be. No. Oh, no," cried Mary Sirhan, when she learned her boy was arrested. Mrs. Sirhan is a housekeeper at a Presbyterian nursery school in Pasadena.
"Ever since he had a fall about a year ago, he hasn't been the same. I can't talk to him," Mrs. Sirhan said her son fell from a horse and "hurt his head here." She pointed to her right temple.
Sirhan Bishara Sirhan was born March 19, 1944 in Jordan, territory seized by Israel during the lightning war last June.

DEATH COMES

members of his family when he died.
Salingier said Ethel, the widow, "is bearing up very well."
Mrs. John F. Kennedy, widow of the assassinated President, was in her brother-in-law's room when he died.
Two of Kennedy's sisters, Mrs. Stephen Smith and Mrs. Patricia Lawford, were there, too.
Salingier said three of Kennedy's 10 children were in an adjacent room and saw their father before he died.
Pale and haggard, Frank Mankiewicz, Kennedy's press secretary, announced the death to newsmen.
"Sen. Robert Francis Kennedy died at 1:44 a.m. today," he began.
Then he answered questions. What was the specific cause of death?
Mankiewicz looked up numbly.
"The gunfire attack," he said. He said "the bullet that went into the head near the right ear" was the fatal shot. It entered Kennedy's brain. Surgeons operated for 3 hours and 40 minutes to remove all but a fragment in a vain attempt to save the senator's life.
But Kennedy never rallied.
"It was not a question of his sinking," Mankiewicz said, "but of not rising. He needed a rally and steady improvement in his condition, and that did not develop."
Salingier announced the body was to be taken from Los Angeles between 10 and 11 a.m. PDT. He said the family, friends and some staff members were to be aboard.
The Requiem Mass will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday.
The body will be placed on a train at 12:30 p.m. for the last journey to Washington. It is expected to arrive at about 4:40 p.m.
The funeral route will take the cortege past the U.S. Senate Office Building where Kennedy worked, and the Department of Justice, where he served as attorney general.
Salingier said Kennedy will be buried at about 5:30 p.m. Saturday in Arlington, probably at the hillside site where his brother's body lies.
Salingier said "all legal requirements" would be met before the body is removed from California. This apparently was in reference to an autopsy.
President Johnson said of Kennedy's death: "This is a time of tragedy and loss."
"During his life, he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy," Johnson said. "Yet he never abandoned his faith in America."
Kennedy was hit at least twice as his assailant emptied an eight shot, .22-caliber revolver in a swift volley as he passed through a kitchen passageway at the Ambassador.
One bullet struck his shoulder and lodged in his neck, the other penetrated to his brain.
Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, in Washington, expressed "profound personal loss" at Kennedy's death. "We have all lost a great American," he said. The vice president appealed that America may find the strength "to dispel the forces of irrational hate among us."
Kennedy's assassination brought presidential campaigning to a halt, as candidates suspended their search for political support. And it left the future Democratic picture in turmoil.
Kennedy's victory in California had pledged to him 172 delegates to the Democratic National Convention. They will represent California at the convention despite his death.
Kennedy entered the race on

The Hope High School 1968 delegates for the American Legion sponsored Girls State are, first row, Robyn Galloway, Carla Martin, Janet Foley, Janey Seamans, Nancy Martindale, Donna Connelly; second row, Pat Westbrook, Junanne Reynolds, Jan Herring, Susan McCain, Linda Cummings, and Jenny Callicott. These twelve delegates leave next Sunday for Camp Robison. There will be 1,015 delegates at the 26th annual Girls State this year.

the Kennedys and a fellow Cabinet member in President John F. Kennedy's administration, made plans to return to the United States from Germany immediately. He and his wife had just arrived in Frankfurt, en route to Indonesia.
McNamara said Kennedy was "one of the wisest, most intelligent, most energetic and most compassionate political leaders in the Western world. It is a tragedy that he should be struck down in the prime of life."
Russians in the streets of Moscow were shocked at the news. One man's eyes filled with tears. A woman listened to the news in stunned silence.
Moscow radio and television reported the death without comment during a regular news broadcast, about 25 minutes after the death was reported in the West.
After reading the report of the death, the Soviet announcer quoted a comment in Pravda, published before Kennedy died, in which the Soviet Communist party newspaper implied that the shooting resulted from American capitalism and from right-wing opposition to Kennedy's views on the Vietnam war.
The British Broadcasting Corp. interrupted a morning radio program to announce the news and played 10 minutes of solemn music without comment.
French radio stations flashed the news, they played solemn music between news bulletins.
American servicemen in Vietnam were saddened, but many were resigned.
"I have an empty feeling," said Navy Lt. Steven C. Taylor, 27, of St. Louis, Mo. "If he had lived the chances are he would have been in very bad shape. It is very sad."
"I feel sick, dead sick," he said finally. "I would have voted for him. I'm supposed to go home in 10 days. Now I just don't look forward to seeing the States as much as I have the past 16 months."

Kansas Kid Wins National Spelling Bee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert L. Walters, eighth-grader from Russell, Kan., won today the 41st National Spelling Bee championship.
He was locked in a tight race down to the finish with Ann Johnson, also an eighth-grader, from Richfield, Minn.
The final stumper for Ann was "myosin," a substance extracted from muscles which she spelled incorrectly "myacin."
Robert, according to Spelling Bee rules, correctly spelled the word missed by the other finalist and then spelled correctly "abalone," a type of tuna fish frequently found in cans in grocery stores.

the night sky, taking him home to Hickory Hill after a rigorous week of Midwestern campaigning.
He had a dark, brown drink, and he idly swirled the ice cubes with an index finger as he spoke broodingly gazing out at the stars and the lights of towns below.
Wasn't he concerned, he was asked, about the perils of such wild crowds as he had attracted that day and nearly every day of his presidential campaign?
"No," the candidate said, "I just don't worry about that. There's no sense in worrying about those things. If they want you, they can get you."
Did he think someone would seek to harm him one day?
He thought for perhaps 30 seconds and then said, "Well, let's not talk about that."
A reporter thought of his brother, John F. Kennedy, assassinated; of an older brother killed in wartime; of his wife's parents and his close friend, Dean Markham, killed in plane crashes.
But wouldn't it be a national crisis if one of his stature were to be harmed, after the violence to his brother and to Martin Luther King Jr.?
"Perhaps it would, I suppose so," Robert Kennedy said. "But what can I do about that?"
"I'll tell you one thing: If I'm elected president you won't find me riding around in any of those awful cars."
He was referring to the closed, armored presidential limousine President Johnson has used since John F. Kennedy's motorcade assassination.
Bobby Kennedy would ride in open cars, he said, so the people could see their president.
"Of course, I worry about what would happen to my family, to the children," Kennedy mused that early spring night on the plane. "But they're well taken care of, and there's really nothing else I can do, is there? So I really don't care about anything happening to me."
And then there was a long pause: "This isn't really such a happy existence, is it?"

Churchill's Only Son Dies at 57

LONDON (AP) — Randolph Churchill, only son of the late Sir Winston Churchill, died Wednesday night. He was 57.
Randolph Churchill, who was engaged in writing a series of volumes about his father's life — a task he had not completed, had been reported not well for some time.
He was twice married but both marriages ended in divorce. He leaves one daughter, Arabella, and a son, Winston.
His mother, Lady Spencer Churchill, is serving as a member of the House of Lords, having been created a baroness after the death of Sir Winston.
March 16, four days after Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., demonstrated the breadth of opposition to the administration by holding Johnson to a standoff in the New Hampshire presidential primary. McCarthy is the candidate Kennedy defeated in the California primary.
Kennedy had just left the victory celebration when the assassin struck.
